Affordable Innovation

The IPS Advantage — Taking Technology to Production

As a start-up or emerging company, manufacturing is a principal concern in getting your product to market. Securing capital, site selection, lease versus buy decisions, manufacturing capacity, strategic recruiting, codes and regulations, design, building, and compliance are critical to a successful strategic plan. Whether you are newly financed or an established company, IPS can facilitate the process of taking technology to production.

Local Client Sampling:

• Kanghong Pharmaceutical Group
