IPS APPOINTS EUGENE K. MARTINI, P.E.
SENIOR DIRECTOR, PROJECT DELIVERY OPERATIONS

– Seasoned Professional with Expertise in Biotechnology and Pharmaceutical Project Management –

Lafayette Hill, PA, May 7, 2007 – Integrated Project Services (IPS), a leading, full-service engineering, procurement, construction and validation company dedicated to assisting pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies improve operations, today announced the appointment of Eugene K. Martini, P.E. as Senior Director, Project Delivery Operations. In this role, Mr. Martini will oversee day-to-day operations of Project Delivery Operations at IPS.

"Gene's depth in biotechnology will add significant subject matter expertise to IPS' project execution portfolio," said Dave Goswami, PE, President and Chief Operating Officer, IPS. "Our clients will benefit from Gene's extensive experience in capital project management and engineering. We are delighted that Gene has joined IPS and look forward to his many contributions."

Mr. Martini brings twenty five years of experience in the management of capital projects for technically complex facilities. Over the last 15 years, he has been exclusively involved with FDA-regulated manufacturing and development projects. His most recent experience was with CDI Corporation as director of Project Management. Prior to that, he served in a variety of roles with Life Sciences International, ultimately serving as project manager, where his responsibilities included management of capital projects for biotechnology and pharmaceutical clients, proposal development and management of client relations.

Mr. Martini earned his MBA from Villanova University and a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Pennsylvania State University. He is a member of ISPE and PMI, the Project Management Institute.
